PRESENT

The Clerk announced the following pairs:

Mr. James C. Davis paired for Mr. McCormack with Mr. Martin of Nebraska paired for Mr. Halleck.

Mr. Shelley paired for Mr. McCormack with Mr. Michel paired for Mr. Halleck.

The CLERK. The tellers agree in their tally. The total number of votes cast was 414, of which the Honorable JOHN W. McCORMACK received 248, and the Honorable CHARLES A. HALLECK received 166. Two voted "present." Therefore, the Honorable JOHN W. McCORMACK of Massachusetts is the duly elected Speaker of the House of Representatives for the 87th Congress.

The Clerk appoints the following Members to escort the Speaker-elect to the Chair: The gentleman from Indiana [Mr. HALLECK] and the gentleman from Oklahoma [Mr. ALBERT].

(The Doorkeeper announced the Speaker-elect of the House of Representatives, who was escorted to the Chair by the committee of escort.)

Mr. HALLECK. Mr. Speaker, my colleagues of the House of Representatives, in my time here I have served under four Speakers—Mr. Byrnes of Tennessee, Mr. Bankhead of Alabama, Mr. Rayburn of Texas, and Mr. Martin of Massachusetts, each a great and good man who served with fairness and with complete dedication to the responsibility of the high office of Speaker of the House of Representatives. A year ago in presenting Speaker RAYBURN, whose passing has saddened us all, I said there would be disagreements among us, and that is as it should be so long as in this Republic we have a two-party system. But, people of good will can disagree where disagreement is proper without rancor and without malice.

Now may I say to you, Mr. Speaker, and to you Members of the House on the majority side that we on the minority side will not be in a negative position. We shall cooperate as best we can to build the economic and military strength of our country. And if our security should be threatened, we shall prove once again that we are a united, resolute people.

We have now chosen a new Speaker. He may find it a little difficult to move from the tempest and tumult of the floor of the House to the serenity of the Speaker's position, but I daresay he will make the move with dispatch.

So it is my happy privilege to present to you the Honorable JOHN W. McCORMACK, himself a great and good man, a worthy successor of the great Speaker RAYBURN, and one who will carry on, we are all sure, with the honored traditions of this high office he now assumes.

To you, Mr. Speaker, congratulations and best wishes.

The SPEAKER. Members of the House of Representatives, my dear friends on both sides of the aisle, and my valued colleagues on both sides of the aisle, occupying my present position as Speaker of the House of Representatives as the result of the death of the late Speaker, our beloved and valiant friend, Mr. RAYBURN of Texas, I express the feeling universally held that Speaker RAYBURN was one of the great Americans and outstanding legislators in our Nation's history. Mr. Speaker RAYBURN was not only a great man, but he was also a good man. If SAM RAYBURN could speak to us today from the Great Beyond, knowing the intense love that each and every one of us have for our country, he would urge us in this trying period of the world's history to carry on with confidence and with unity.

I appreciate very much the generous references made to me by the distinguished minority leader and also my valued friend, because from the day he came here as a new Member, he and I have developed a respect which long ago ripened into true friendship, whose friendship I love and value very much.

I hope, CHARLIE—departing a little from my prepared remarks—that I will have great lateral support from you during this session.

I am most grateful for the action of my Democratic colleagues in the caucus on yesterday in selecting me as their candidate for Speaker of the House of Representatives, and today to my colleagues of the entire House I am most grateful for the honor they have conferred upon me in the action of electing me to this great office.

I profoundly appreciate the high honor of being the presiding officer of this the greatest legislative body in the world, and for this evidence of your great confidence, respect, and friendship I express to you my sincere thanks. In the exercise and performance of the powers and duties of the Speaker, parliamentary or otherwise, I shall perform such duties impartially with fair treatment to all Members in interpreting and enforcing the rules, but above all protecting the rights of all Members without regard to party affiliation.

While as leader in this body of my party, I have my political responsibilities, in the performance of my duties as Speaker, my responsibility is to the House itself and to all of its Members.

As majority leader I always considered that one of my primary duties was to protect the rights, under the rules and also in accordance with the customs of the House, of the minority party. I shall follow that course as Speaker.

This is not the time for extended remarks on my part, and particularly for reference to legislative matters or public questions we must face during this session of the Congress. However, I respectfully request that all Members give me, as far as possible, their understanding cooperation, as well as their tolerant consideration.

There is one brief observation that I consider pertinent to an occasion of this kind and at this time of the world's history. The distinguished minority leader pertinently and effectively also made reference to it.

We are living in a world of strain and tension in which evil forces exist bent on world domination, with resultant enslavement, persecution, and even death itself.

Confining myself to a strong national defense and a firm foreign policy, I am proud that the Congress for years has made a powerful record in these two important fields.

It is evident to all of us that great changes are taking place throughout the world. We must effectively meet the challenges that confront us in this period of world history if we want to have our Nation move forward. We must move forward through the complex shoals of world politics and domestic problems, through a maze of interlocking problems in science and society, which our predecessors in this body could never have contemplated.

Fortunately, as in the case of Presidents in the immediate past, we have in President Kennedy a strong leader who does not shrink from the challenges that confront him, and also, fortunately—and I say this with great pride—we have a Congress that does not shrink from these responsibilities. A strong President and a strong Congress, which fortunately our country and a free world have, working together guarantee ultimate victory for the cause of freedom and liberty. [Applause.]

For a third of a century I have been a Member of this body, and its traditions have become my traditions. Its fellowship is the finest any person could hope to have.

I will abide by the traditions and responsibilities we all hold so firmly.

I will continue to maintain the dignity of the House of Representatives, protecting its prerogatives and maintaining the right and privileges of its members.

So, it is in a very personal way that I conclude my remarks by thanking each and every one of you from the depths of my heart for this great honor that you have conferred upon me. I shall live up to the great traditions of this office, having in mind the contributions made by the Speakers of the past, particularly by the great contributions made by my predecessor.

Again, to you my Democratic colleagues for selecting me in caucus, and to all of my colleagues for electing me in the House, I express to you my deep and sincere thanks. [Applause.]

The Chair requests that the dean of the House of Representatives, my dear and valued friend, the gentleman from Georgia [Mr. VINSON], administer the oath of office.

(Mr. VINSON then administered the oath of office to Mr. McCORMACK of Massachusetts.)

The SPEAKER. The Chaplain will offer the prayer.

THE PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. Bernard Braskamp, D.D., offered the following prayer: Hebrews 11: 4: He being dead yet speaketh.

Almighty God, as we assemble for this 2d session of the 87th Congress, we find ourselves going up and down the sacred courts of memory.

We are calling to mind with deep and fond affection the life and character of the beloved Speaker. As Thou didst not lose him in giving him to us, so we have not lost him by his return to Thee.

Grant that, although absent from us in bodily presence, we may daily feel and hear his spirit urging us to carry on faithfully and courageously.

Gratefully and proudly we are ascribing unto him the words of the inspired poet in praise of the Duke of Wellington—

Great in council and great in war,
Foremost captain of his time,
Rich in saving common sense
And, as the greatest only are,
In his simplicity sublime.

We earnestly beseech Thee to bestow upon our President, our newly elected Speaker, and on all our chosen Representatives every needed blessing for the duties of their high vocation.

Hear us as we bow in adoration and unite in offering unto Thee the prayer of the Prince of Peace—

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name: Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven; give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.

Amen.

MINUTE OF SILENT PRAYER IN MEMORY OF THE LATE SPEAKER RAYBURN

The SPEAKER. The Chair asks the Members to remain standing for 1 minute of silent prayer in memory of our late beloved Speaker RAYBURN.

REPORT ON LEND-LEASE OPERATIONS—MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES (H. DOC. NO. 205)

The SPEAKER. The Chair lays before the House the following communication from the Clerk of the House which the Clerk will read.

The Clerk read as follows:

OFFICE OF THE CLERK,
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
Washington, D.C., October 16, 1961.

The Honorable the SPEAKER,
House of Representatives.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit herewith a sealed envelope addressed to the Speaker of the House of Representatives from the President of the United States, received in the Clerk's office at 11:05 a.m. on October 16, 1961, and said to contain the 42d report to Congress on lend-lease operations for the calendar year 1960.

Respectfully yours,

RALPH R. ROBERTS,
Clerk, U.S. House of Representatives.

The SPEAKER laid before the House the following message from the President of the United States, which was read, and, together with the accompanying papers, referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs and ordered to be printed with illustrations:

To the Congress of the United States:

I am transmitting herewith the 42d report to Congress on lend-lease operations for the calendar year 1960.

Information on the status of the various lend-lease accounts of our allies of World War II is contained in the report. As explained in previous reports there were two main types of lend-lease procedures under which other countries undertook to reimburse the United States: (1) Settlement agreements whereby the financial undertakings of the other governments were funded on credit terms and (2) arrangements described generally as "cash reimbursement accounts" under which the recipients were to pay the United States in cash at the time the lend-lease goods were provided.

In summary, lend-lease settlement agreements thus far concluded with various governments provide for the eventual payment to the United States of $1,577,570,755.50, plus interest. According to data supplied by the Treasury Department as of December 31, 1960, total collections and credits on these accounts amounted to $751,142,976.96. Payments during 1960 totaled $49,401,368.02. Additionally, on the "cash reimbursement accounts" foreign governments had, as of December 31, 1960, paid

$1,301,529,123.32 of the $1,326,934,982.11 owed to the United States. A total of $109,310.00 was received during 1960.

Under the lend-lease program, the United States also loaned 409,782,670.64 fine troy ounces of silver to various countries. As of December 31, 1960, 366,066,067.73 fine troy ounces had been returned. Shipments of silver not assayed by the close of 1960 are not included in this figure.

This report gives an account of the negotiations with the Soviet Government on a settlement for some of the lend-lease aid received from the United States prior to V-J Day. As mentioned in the previous report, the discussions, which began on January 11, 1960, were discontinued on January 27, 1960, because there appeared to be no common ground for continuing. There have been no further developments on this matter.

JOHN F. KENNEDY.

THE WHITE HOUSE, October 16, 1961.

(Enclosure: 42d report to Congress on lend-lease operations.)

QUARTERLY REPORTS

The following quarterly reports were submitted for the third calendar quarter 1961:

(NOTE.—The form used for reports is reproduced below. In the interest of economy in the RECORD, questions are not repeated, only the essential answers are printed, and are indicated by their respective letter and number.)

FILE TWO COPIES WITH THE SECRETARY OF THE SENATE AND FILE THREE COPIES WITH THE CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES:

This page (page 1) is designed to supply identifying data; and page 2 (on the back of this page) deals with financial data.

PLACE AN "X" BELOW THE APPROPRIATE LETTER OR FIGURE IN THE BOX AT THE RIGHT OF THE "REPORT" HEADING BELOW:

"PRELIMINARY" REPORT ("Registration"): To "register," place an "X" below the letter "P" and fill out page 1 only.

"QUARTERLY" REPORT: To indicate which one of the four calendar quarters is covered by this Report, place an "X" below the appropriate figure. Fill out both page 1 and page 2 and as many additional pages as may be required. PURSUANT TO FEDERAL REGULATION OF LOBBYING ACT

NOTE ON ITEM "A".—(a) IN GENERAL. This "Report" form may be used by either an organization or an individual, as follows:

- (i) "Employee".—To file as an "employee", state (in Item "B") the name, address, and nature of business of the "employer". (If the "employee" is a firm [such as a law firm or public relations firm], partners and salaried staff members of such firm may join in filing a Report as an "employee".)
- (ii) "Employer".—To file as an "employer", write "None" in answer to Item "B".
- (b) SEPARATE REPORTS. An agent or employee should not attempt to combine his Report with the employer's Report:
 - (i) Employers subject to the Act must file separate Reports and are not relieved of this requirement merely because Reports are filed by their agents or employees.
 - (ii) Employees subject to the Act must file separate Reports and are not relieved of this requirement merely because Reports are filed by their employers.

A. ORGANIZATION OR INDIVIDUAL FILING:

1. State name, address, and nature of business.

2. If this Report is for an Employer, list names or agents or employees who will file Reports for this Quarter.

NOTE ON ITEM "B".—Reports by Agents or Employees. An employee is to file, each quarter, as many Reports as he has employers, except that: (a) If a particular undertaking is jointly financed by a group of employers, the group is to be considered as one employer, but all members of the group are to be named, and the contribution of each member is to be specified; (b) if the work is done in the interest of one person but payment therefor is made by another, a single Report—naming both persons as "employers"—is to be filed each quarter.

B. EMPLOYER.—State name, address, and nature of business. If there is no employer, write "None."

NOTE ON ITEM "C".—(a) The expression "in connection with legislative interests," as used in this Report, means "in connection with attempting, directly or indirectly, to influence the passage or defeat of legislation." "The term 'legislation' means bills, resolutions, amendments, nominations, and other matters pending or proposed in either House of Congress, and includes any other matter which may be the subject of action by either House"—§ 302(e).

(b) Before undertaking any activities in connection with legislative interests, organizations and individuals subject to the Lobbying Act are required to file a "Preliminary" Report (Registration).

(c) After beginning such activities, they must file a "Quarterly" Report at the end of each calendar quarter in which they have either received or expended anything of value in connection with legislative interests.

C. LEGISLATIVE INTERESTS, AND PUBLICATIONS in connection therewith:

1. State approximately how long legislative interests are to continue. If receipts and expenditures in connection with legislative interests have terminated, place an "X" in the box at the left, so that this Office will no longer expect to receive Reports.

2. State the general legislative interests of the person filing and set forth the specific legislative interests by reciting: (a) Short titles of statutes and bills; (b) House and Senate numbers of bills, where known; (c) citations of statutes, where known; (d) whether for or against such statutes and bills.

3. In the case of those publications which the person filing has caused to be issued or distributed in connection with legislative interests, set forth: (a) Description, (b) quantity distributed; (c) date of distribution, (d) name of printer or publisher (if publications were paid for by person filing) or name of donor (if publications were received as a gift).

(Answer items 1, 2, and 3 in the space below. Attach additional pages if more space is needed)

4. If this is a "Preliminary" Report (Registration) rather than a "Quarterly" Report, state below what the nature and amount of anticipated expenses will be; and if for an agent or employee, state also what the daily, monthly, or annual rate of compensation is to be. If this is a "Quarterly" Report, disregard this item "C4" and fill out item "D" and "E" on the back of this page. Do not attempt to combine a "Preliminary" Report (Registration) with a "Quarterly" Report.◀

AFFIDAVIT

[Omitted in printing]

NOTE ON ITEM "D."—(a) In General. The term "contribution" includes anything of value. When an organization or individual uses printed or duplicated matter in a campaign attempting to influence legislation, money received by such organization or individual—for such printed or duplicated matter—is a "contribution." "The term 'contribution' includes a gift, subscription, loan, advance, or deposit of money, or anything of value, and includes a contract, promise, or agreement, whether or not legally enforceable, to make a contribution"—Section 302(a) of the Lobbying Act.

(b) IF THIS REPORT IS FOR AN EMPLOYER.—(i) In General. Item "D" is designed for the reporting of all receipts from which expenditures are made, or will be made, in accordance with legislative interests.

(ii) Receipts of Business Firms and Individuals.—A business firm (or individual) which is subject to the Lobbying Act by reason of expenditures which it makes in attempting to influence legislation—but which has no funds to expend except those which are available in the ordinary course of operating a business not connected in any way with the influencing of legislation—will have no receipts to report, even though it does have expenditures to report.

(iii) Receipts of Multipurpose Organizations.—Some organizations do not receive any funds which are to be expended solely for the purpose of attempting to influence legislation. Such organizations make such expenditures out of a general fund raised by dues, assessments, or other contributions. The percentage of the general fund which is used for such expenditures indicates the percentage of dues, assessments, or other contributions which may be considered to have been paid for that purpose. Therefore, in reporting receipts, such organizations may specify what that percentage is, and report their dues, assessments, and other contributions on that basis. However, each contributor of $500 or more is to be listed, regardless of whether the contribution was made solely for legislative purposes.

(c) IF THIS REPORT IS FOR AN AGENT OR EMPLOYEE.—(i) In General. In the case of many employees, all receipts will come under Items "D 5" (received for services) and "D 12" (expense money and reimbursements). In the absence of a clear statement to the contrary, it will be presumed that your employer is to reimburse you for all expenditures which you make in connection with legislative interests.

(ii) Employer as Contributor of $500 or More.—When your contribution from your employer (in the form of salary, fee, etc.) amounts to $500 or more, it is not necessary to report such contribution under "D 13" and "D 14," since the amount has already been reported under "D 5," and the name of the "employer" has been given under Item "B" on page 1 of this report.

REPORT

Year: 19-----

PURSUANT TO FEDERAL REGULATION OF LOBBYING ACT

P	QUARTER
	1st	2d	3d	4th

(Mark one square only)

NOTE ON ITEM "A".—(a) IN GENERAL. This "Report" form may be used by either an organization or an individual, as follows:

- (1) "Employee".—To file as an "employee," state (in Item "B") the name, address, and nature of business of the "employer". (If the "employee" is a firm [such as a law firm or public relations firm], partners and salaried staff members of such firm may join in filing a Report as an "employee".)
- (ii) "Employer".—To file as an "employer," write "None" in answer to Item "B".
- (b) SEPARATE REPORTS. An agent or employee should not attempt to combine his Report with the employer's Report:
 - (i) Employers subject to the Act must file separate Reports and are not relieved of this requirement merely because Reports are filed by their agents or employees.
 - (ii) Employees subject to the Act must file separate Reports and are not relieved of this requirement merely because Reports are filed by their employers.

A. ORGANIZATION OR INDIVIDUAL FILING:

1. State name, address, and nature of business.

2. If this Report is for an Employer, list names or agents or employees who will file Reports for this Quarter.

NOTE ON ITEM "B".—Reports by Agents or Employees. An employee is to file, each quarter, as many Reports as he has employers, except that: (a) If a particular undertaking is jointly financed by a group of employers, the group is to be considered as one employer, but all members of the group are to be named, and the contribution of each member is to be specified; (b) if the work is done in the interest of one person but payment therefor is made by another, a single Report—naming both persons as "employers"—is to be filed each quarter.

B. EMPLOYER.—State name, address, and nature of business. If there is no employer, write "None."

NOTE ON ITEM "C".—(a) The expression "in connection with legislative interests," as used in this Report, means "in connection with attempting, directly or indirectly, to influence the passage or defeat of legislation." "The term 'legislation' means bills, resolutions, amendments, nominations, and other matters pending or proposed in either House of Congress, and includes any other matter which may be the subject of action by either House"—§ 302(e).

(b) Before undertaking any activities in connection with legislative interests, organizations and individuals subject to the Lobbying Act are required to file a "Preliminary" Report (Registration).

(c) After beginning such activities, they must file a "Quarterly" Report at the end of each calendar quarter in which they have either received or expended anything of value in connection with legislative interests.

C. LEGISLATIVE INTERESTS, AND PUBLICATIONS in connection therewith:

1. State approximately how long legislative interests are to continue. If receipts and expenditures in connection with legislative interests have terminated, place an "X" in the box at the left, so that this Office will no longer expect to receive Reports.

2. State the general legislative interests of the person filing and set forth the specific legislative interests by reciting: (a) Short titles of statutes and bills; (b) House and Senate numbers of bills, where known; (c) citations of statutes, where known; (d) whether for or against such statutes and bills.

3. In the case of those publications which the person filing has caused to be issued or distributed in connection with legislative interests, set forth: (a) Description, (b) quantity distributed; (c) date of distribution, (d) name of printer or publisher (if publications were paid for by person filing) or name of donor (if publications were received as a gift).

(Answer items 1, 2, and 3 in the space below. Attach additional pages if more space is needed)

4. If this is a "Preliminary" Report (Registration) rather than a "Quarterly" Report, state below what the nature and amount of anticipated expenses will be; and if for an agent or employee, state also what the daily, monthly, or annual rate of compensation is to be. If this is a "Quarterly" Report, disregard this item "C4" and fill out item "D" and "E" on the back of this page. Do not attempt to combine a "Preliminary" Report (Registration) with a "Quarterly" Report.◀

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

Powers of the Comptroller of the Currency

EXTENSION OF REMARKS

OF

HON. EMANUEL CELLER

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, January 10, 1962

Mr. CELLER. Mr. Speaker, under leave to extend my remarks in the RECORD, I include a letter which I addressed to the Honorable James J. Saxon, Comptroller of the Currency, on January 9, 1962. The text of the letter follows:

JANUARY 9, 1962.

HON. JAMES J. SAXON,
Comptroller of the Currency,
Treasury Department,
Washington, D.C.

DEAR Mr. SAXON: After reading your opinion in the First National City Bank of New York case with great care, I believe it advisable to make the following comments:

At the hearing, after you had referred to Westchester County branches of New York City banks, I had the following colloquy with you:

"Mr. CELLER. Your statement only emphasizes the fact that New York City banks have the opportunity to enter Westchester County by application for branches and approval thereof and that they can and should do it in this manner and not do it in a wholesale manner by grabbing up the second largest bank in Westchester. . . ."

"The COMPTROLLER. Well, Mr. Chairman, this is a pertinent question. Where should the line be drawn?"

"Mr. CELLER. Some agency has the power to control the number of those branches. Here you go in and allow willy-nilly a bank to secure control of 22 branches at one fell swoop. I think that is wrong. Let them grow gradually and let there be supervision over the number of branches that they shall have."

I am pleased that your decision is in accord with that position.

I am, however, disturbed by certain obiter statements in your opinion—noted in the press—which I find inconsistent with the intent and understanding of the Congress.

Thus, while your decision acknowledges your responsibility to act "within the statutory policies prescribed by the Congress," nevertheless in referring to the antitrust laws you state that the nature of commercial banking is such as to render "highly questionable for judging bank mergers the concepts developed in the application of those laws to industrial corporations." This would seem to question the judgment of Congress in not exempting banks from the Sherman Act and other antitrust laws. It would seem to question the wisdom of Congress in requiring the bank regulatory agencies to consider competition and tendency to monopoly factors in considering applications for approval of mergers. And it would seem to question the propriety of applying antitrust law precedents to bank mergers.

In your opinion you state that "we have considerable doubt that there can exist effective monopoly power in commercial banking as it operates in this country today." You also assert in your opinion, "that there has been a considerable overemphasis upon an alleged lack of competition in banking, and an alleged concentration in banking. To the contrary, banking is highly competitive. It is diffuse rather than concentrated."

I find these remarks utterly inconsistent with the position and understanding of Congress as expressed in the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, the Bank Merger Act of 1960, and the extensive supporting legislative history. Congress was well aware at the time it enacted these laws that it was dealing with a regulated industry. On the basis of uncontradicted facts adduced before both House and Senate committees, however, it considered that banking concentration was so acute a problem as to require corrective legislation.

I am sure you recognize that regulation of some aspects of an industry cannot, in itself, insure that unhealthy monopoly and detrimental absence of competition may not arise in such industries. It may be, therefore, that what you may have had in mind in the above utterances was that the Federal agencies, properly enforcing the applicable Federal statutes, would prevent any substantial lessening of competition or tendency to monopoly in the banking field.

In your opinion you take the position that only the banking agencies have the competency and equipment to determine competitive standards for banks. According to the press, you have more recently asserted that your office should have the sole or primary responsibility regarding the fixing of service charges by banks in restraint of trade.

I remind you, therefore, that Congress did not regard either your agency or the other Federal bank supervisory agencies to have such competence in evaluating competitive factors in the banking field as to entrust consideration of such factors solely to them. Thus your predecessor testified: "I have no competency in that (the antitrust) field. I do not know what the courts have done." (Hearings before Antitrust Subcommittee, Senate Committee on the Judiciary, on S. 3341, 84th Cong., p. 80.)

You, of course, are well aware that the statutes expressly envisage that these agencies will avail themselves of the special competence of the Department of Justice on such matters to receive its advice thereon. The courts also, undoubtedly, will have occasion to consider such factors in pending litigation before them.

Sincerely yours,

EMANUEL CELLER,
Chairman.

A Tribute to Archbishop Francis P. Keough

OF

HON. SAMUEL N. FRIEDEL

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, January 10, 1962

Mr. FRIEDEL. Mr. Speaker, last month Baltimore City lost one of its outstanding citizens and a great spiritual leader. It is with a deep and sincere sense of sadness that I note the passing of the Most Reverend Francis P. Keough, archbishop of Baltimore.

Archbishop Keough died at 8:35 Friday morning, December 8, 1961, in the Georgetown University Hospital after having been stricken with a cerebral thrombosis on November 30 past.

Born December 30, 1890, in New Britain, Conn., Francis Patrick Keough was educated at St. Mary's Parochial School in New Britain; St. Thomas Seminary, Hartford; Seminaire de St. Sulpice, Ossy, France; and St. Bernard's Seminary, Rochester, N.Y. He was ordained June 10, 1916. The first and only parish assignment of his career was 3 years as curate of St. Rose's Church in Meriden, Conn. He never became a pastor, an unusual circumstance in a clerical career.

Father Keough was consecrated bishop of Providence, May 22, 1954, a post he served with distinction until being named archbishop on November 29, 1947, by the late Pope Pius XII, following the death of Archbishop Michael J. Curley.

His loss will be felt not only by the members of his own faith but by all who knew him and came in contact with him,
